

Sex Worker Outreach Coalition

Students in the School of Social Work and other academic departments at PSU have partnered with the Sex Worker Outreach Coalition (SWOC). This partnership with SWOC, whose members include PSU students and professors, community activists, social services agencies and sex workers, has resulted in collaborative work towards community awareness and education, outreach to sex workers and the implementation of arts-based community research with sex workers to improve the lives of those working in the sex industry in Portland.

photo from the "Visions & Voices" Art Exhibit featuring 34 photos taken by women working in the sex industry, documenting their lived experiences, their needs and their aspirations