School of Social Work

Marion County Juvenile Department

Portland State University's School of Social Work and the Marion County Juvenile Department partnered in 1995, offering Master in Social Work (M.S.W.) students the opportunity to provide counseling services to teens and parents. Marion County employees with an M.S.W. degree volunteer to mentor and supervise students for 500 hours a year. Students provide classroom knowledge and diversity to an established organization that assists in improving lives in communities outside of urban Portland.
