

Melody Rose
Political Science

New Leadership Oregon

Through the department of Political Science and our Community Advisory Board, National Education for Women's Leadership Oregon (NLO) identifies, educates, and supports the next generation of women leaders through an intensive, weeklong non-partisan leadership institute. A capacity-building organization that takes a long term view on building women's leadership, NLO is open to all women enrolled in Oregon higher education institutions by providing mentoring from the brightest women leaders in the state.

National Education for Women's Leadership Oregon with Governor Roberts at the state capitol