

Sarah L. Sterling
Anthropology

Marion County Historical Society

The Marion County Historical Society brings the past alive to students in Salem area Title 1 schools through interactive programs in which students construct history through observation. MCHS also participates in Portland State's Senior Capstone program, working with PSU students to research historical artifacts for which the Society has limited information. MCHS is developing an internship program wherein PSU students will create an interactive curriculum for Title 1 schools based on their Capstone experience.

