

SAMPLE INTERNSHIP DESCRIPTION – NOT CURRENTLY OPEN – FOR INFORMATION ONLY

Greenpeace Organizing Team Intern Greenpeace

The Greenpeace Organizing Term (GOT) is looking for the next generation of students to stand up for the planet!

The GOT is an action-packed semester and the best hands-on training for students to become environmental leaders.

You will be:

- Making an investment in your leadership skills.
- Getting training in grassroots organizing, media, direct action, and campaign strategy.
- Learning how to talk to your peers and folks in your community about the issues.
- Traveling with Greenpeace on campaign trips and on the Greenpeace Expedition, meeting with incredible activists working to protect the planet!

During your semester with Greenpeace you'll get a chance to take part in discussion based, classroom style training and get your hands dirty in the field, organizing on the ground in communities. Students will leave the program with a comprehensive set of new organizing skills and a life-changing experience.

To apply and for more info: http://members.greenpeace.org/survey/start/282/?ref\_source=posting\_spring11\_got

If you have questions check out our site at: <http://www.greenpeace.org/got> or email us got@wdc.greenpeace.org

Qualifications:

Must be 18-24 years of age as well as a current undergraduate student.

Rising freshmen and sophomores are preferred.

International students are welcome, but only if they are studying in the US or Canada.

We are looking for students who are passionate, smart, visionary, and committed to protecting the environment.

No prior experience is necessary.

Greenpeace strongly encourages applications from women, people of color and other underrepresented communities