

LITERACY EDUCATION PROGRAM OF STUDY
Reading Endorsement; Reading, Writing, and Literature K-12

UPDATED PROGRAM, EFFECTIVE FALL 2011

The program is 25 credits (16 core credits + 3 practicum credits + 6 credits of electives).

Please note: Please double-check the online class schedule or with your advisor to confirm that your desired course is offered during the term indicated as scheduling changes to sometime occur.

Also, please note: It is very important that you meet with faculty advisor to plan your program.

Core courses (16 credits)

DEPT	#	COURSE TITLE	CRS	Fall	Winter	Spring	Summer
CI	522	Literacy Foundations (psychology, history, theory & research)	4	X
CI	529	School Reading Program Leadership	3			X
CI	536	Language, Literacy, and Culture	3		X
CI	528	Literacy Assessment for Reading Specialists	3	X
CI	574*	Assessing and Teaching Struggling Elementary Readers	3		X
CI	530*	Teaching Struggling Adolescent Readers	3		X

Practicum (3 credits)

DEPT	#	COURSE TITLE	CRS	Fall	Winter	Spring	Summer
CI	509	Practicum in Literacy	3			X

Electives (6 credits)

(Please note that all electives are not offered every year. However when offered, they are generally offered during the terms indicated)

DEPT	#	COURSE TITLE	CRS	Fall	Winter	Spring	Summer
CI	572	Language & Literacy in Early Childhood Education (P-3)	3	X		X
CI	547	Advanced Elementary Methods: Reading (K-8)	3				X
CI	533	Media and Literacy (K-12)	3			X
CI	531	Facilitating Content Area Literacy Strategies	3				X
LIB	529	Young Adult Literature (5-12)	3		X		X
CI	520	Linguistics for Teachers (K-12)	3				X
CI	524	Developing the Writing Workshop (K-12)	3			X
CI	527	Literature in Classrooms K-8	3			X

*Students pursuing a paired ECE/ELEM authorization level must take CI 574. Students pursuing a paired MS/HS authorization level must take CI 530. Students pursuing ELEM/MS may choose either.

**CI 522, CI 574/530, and CI 528 are prerequisites for the practicum. CI 529 may be taken concurrently or as a prerequisite. CI 536 may be taken after the practicum.