Important! You must arrive at the assembly area no later than 8:45 a.m.

This is your reader card. Please remember to bring it with you to the Spring Commencement Ceremony on Saturday, June 13, 2009. You should plan to arrive at the assembly area no later than 8:45 a.m.

A few things to remember about the reader card:

1. Please do not lose, maul, fold, tear, or otherwise mutilate your reader card.
2. If you need to make corrections or change the information on the card please print neatly on the line provided. If any of your address information is incorrect, please write cross it out and write the correct information on the back of the card.
3. The major indicated on the reader card is the major that you reported when you registered. If this is not the major you want to sit with, it is fine to line up with a different major.
