

Department of Communication GRADUATE ASSISTANT APPLICATION

All students applying for graduate admission are encouraged to apply for a paid assistantship. The award includes tuition reimbursement and a monthly stipend. Most awards are made for 3 terms (fall, winter and spring) and may be renewed. Some graduate assistants teach courses, some assist faculty with large classes, and others assist faculty with research and grants.

Applicants should have excellent communication skills, including writing and interpersonal communication. Prior teaching experience is advantageous.

Applications should be included in your admission packet.

NAME: _____

Email: _____ Telephone: _____

Mailing address: _____

YOUR APPLICATION STATEMENT

Attach a one-page typed statement that persuades us of your ability to be an effective graduate assistant. What experience qualifies you for this position? How will you add to the quality of our department? Why are you the best candidate to fill this position?

REFERENCES

Please provide the name, telephone numbers and email addresses of at least TWO references who can speak to your ability to work as a graduate assistant, and ensure that the references know they may receive a call or email from the Department of Communication.

1. _____

2. _____

.