

New Student Orientation

MAY 2005

Welcome 2005-06 Cohort

May 12th, 2005 was the initiation of a new cohort. What a group it is...

The morning was filled with hand-outs, information, advice, more information, standards, more information, tours to the computer lab, library, financial aid, counseling clinic, MISL, and more information, then...

FINALLY, LUNCH!!

Then the afternoon with the faculty

It was an efficient and friendly team that helped the new students prepare for orientation. L-R Gary Thomas, Rachel Stone, Mike Shults and Kris Smith.

provided more information, advice and time to meet with each track and ask all the questions one could think of to get more INFORMATION!

...Eeeehhh gaddds..
....This is only the beginning!??

By Jan Premo

Jeremy Gibbon and Craig Lowery reviewing plans for orientation duties.

Jeremy Gibbon and Jan Stevens... more review of their duties....

Dean Edmundson welcomes new students

Dean Edmundson made a special effort to welcome new students, squeezing in a brief message before she went on to her busy meeting schedule.

Mike Shultz and Kris Smith waiting for their first victim....

MEETING YOUR TRACK MEMBERS!!

So much to absorb, can it all be remembered?

This student seems to be wondering...

"What have I gotten myself into ??"

Some of this, and some of that, and some more of....

Wonderful Conversation & friendships starting...

Couples Marriage and Family track lifting their treasured prizes of crazy straws for winning the orientation game. Great start for the 2005 CMF track

You said what!?
