COMPANY PROFILE

The primary responsibility of the Campus Public Safety Office (CPSO) is to protect the Portland State University community by providing general assistance to visitors, employees, and others doing business or associated with the University, and to safeguard the vehicles, buildings, and property on campus.

CPSO Officers utilize arrest powers granted by Oregon Statutes. Officers enforce all regulations and laws, of the University and the state of Oregon, as well as applicable city ordinances.

The Public Safety Office is open 24 hours a day, seven days a week to respond to calls for assistance, campus incidents, building alarms, crimes, injuries or illnesses, safety hazards, coordination with local law enforcement, crowd control, building inspections, parking enforcement, and related activities.
