Asian Canadian Literature and Culture

With Marie Lo

Jin-me Yoon, "Group of Sixty-Seven," detail

The Canadian Studies Department at PSU welcomes Professor of English Literature, Marie Lo, as she explores the topic of landscapes and borders in Asian Canadian literature and art.

Marie Lo is a professor of English Literature at Portland State University. She is completing her manuscript, "Recognition's Field of Vision: The Visible Subject of Asian North America," which traces the cross-fertilization of US and Canadian racial discourses in Asian North American cultural production.
