

MA TESOL PROGRAM PLANNING FORM

Name: _____ ID# _____ Ph: _____

Address: _____
(street) (city) (state) (zip)

E-mail address: _____

Advisor: _____ Estimated graduation date: _____

Notes: *A maximum of 16 credits can be transferred into the program.
 All courses (PSU and transfer) must be graded B or above (no P/NP grade option).*

Prerequisites:	X	Term
Grammar Prerequisite* (to be fulfilled 1 st term or first Ling 492 offering; note method of fulfilling & date)
Conditions upon admission (check letter of acceptance)
Foreign Language Requirement (note language, method of fulfilling, and date)
Language Education/Applied Linguistics Theory: 20 credits
Required Courses (16 credits):
LING 538: Second Language Acquisition
LING 571: Understanding the Int'l Experience
LING 577: TESOL Methods I (prerequisite: Ling 538 and Ling 571)
LING 578: TESOL Methods II
Elective Course (4 credits), choose one from the following:
LING 509: Community ESL Practicum
LING 539: Language Assessment
LING 565: Administration of ESL/EFL Programs
LING 570: Grammar for TESOL
LING 575: Curriculum Design & Materials Development
LING 576: Corpus Linguistics in Language Teaching
LING 510: various special topics (advisor approved)
Teaching Portfolio (note date approved)
Foundations in Language/Linguistic Theory: 16 credits
Linguistic Argumentation (4 credits), choose one from the following:
LING 511: Syntax
LING 512: Phonology
Linguistic Analysis (4 credits), choose one from the following or the other Linguistic Argumentation course:
LING 513: Linguistic Semantics
LING 514: Linguistic Pragmatics
LING 515: Linguistic Phonetics
LING 516: Discourse Analysis
LING 520: Historical-Comparative Linguistics
LING 510: various special topics (advisor approved)
Language and Society/ Language and the Mind (8 credits), choose two from the following:
Language and Society:
LING 532: Sociolinguistics
LING 580: Bilingualism
LING 582: Pidgins & Creoles
LING 581: World Englishes
LING 510: various special topics (advisor approved)
Language and the Mind:
LING 533: Psycholinguistics
LING 537: First Language Acquisition
LING 545: Linguistics and Cognitive Science
LING 510: various special topics (advisor approved)
Research and Culminating Experience: 12 credits
LING 559: Introduction to Graduate Study (2 credits; taken in first term of admission or before admission)
LING 560: Research Design (2 credits; taken after 16 credits of 500 level LING coursework)
LING 561: Research Methods (2 credits)
LING 507: Empirical Research Writing (4 credits) – required for Project or Exam option, not for Thesis
Ling 503 Thesis (6 cr.)/Ling 506 Project (2 cr.)/Ling 501 Exam (2cr.) Sign up with Advisor
Total Credits: 48

Grammar Prerequisite: (1) Pass the Department Grammar Test or (2) pass LING 492 (Structure of English) or equivalent with a grade of B or better.
 *Teaching Portfolio: 70 hours of documented tutoring, observation, and practice teaching, presented in a Portfolio (plus other elements, such as a philosophy of teaching statement). Much of this Portfolio is developed for assignments in LING 577 and 578.
 rev. 9-21-10