Diversity Scholarship Program
2024-2025 Application

Application Deadline: Applications (online or faxed) MUST be in our office, SMSU 425, on or before April 1, 2024 by 11:59 pm. If you plan to mail or drop off a paper application, it MUST be in our office by April 1, 2024, by 5:00 pm.

Purpose:

The purpose of the Diversity Scholarship Program is to expand and enrich Portland State's learning community by recognizing and supporting outstanding students from first generation and various cultural, ethnic and socio-economic backgrounds, with diverse talents, interests, and life experiences. The Diversity Scholarship Program is committed to helping students achieve their academic goals. The program promotes diversity and student participation in campus life through volunteerism and academic excellence. Scholarship recipients will share their unique strengths and diverse perspectives through their involvement in on-campus activities, in the classroom and through their participation in community service. The Diversity Scholarship is a tuition-remission credit in the amount of 12 undergraduate credits at the resident tuition rate excluding fees (actual amount varies).

Eligibility requirements:

High School Students

- Fewer than 30 college credits with a 3.0 cumulative high school GPA or GED completion (55 total score or better)
- Must have applied for admissions to Portland State University by April 1, 2024
- Must enter Portland State University in fall 2025

Incoming transfer students

- Minimum of 30 transferable college credits, but no more than 134 credits with 2.50 cumulative college-level GPA
- Must be working to complete first bachelor's degree
- Must have applied for admissions to Portland State University by April 1, 2024
- Must enter Portland State University in fall 2025

Current PSU undergraduates

- No more than 134 credits with 2.50 cumulative college-level GPA
- Must be working to complete first bachelor's degree

Selection Criteria:

The scholarship is awarded to students who best exemplify the purpose of the Diversity Scholarship Program. Priority for the Diversity Scholarship is given to Oregon residents with high financial need as defined by federal guidelines and who are "first-generation" college students (neither parent has a four-year college degree from any country). International students are not eligible for this scholarship.

A. Essay (required) – Print or type your name and student identification number on each page

Please provide short answers (Maximum of 500 words for each question) to all of the following questions:

1. Describe a significant life experience that illustrates how you will contribute to a campus community that values diversity and inclusion.
2. Describe a personal experience that influenced who you are today and your pursuit of a college education. What are your educational goals and career aspirations?
3. Briefly describe your present financial situation for the coming year. What financial challenges do you anticipate encountering as you pursue a college education?
4. Imagine: You are a Service Learning project coordinator. Please describe a service learning project you would coordinate? Why did you choose this project? How would you get others involved in the service learning opportunity?

Note: Think about and write your answers carefully. Your responses are important in the selection process. Please have your essays reviewed for grammar, content, and spelling by at least two individuals.

B. Recommendations

Please ask two people not related to you, but who can speak to your academic ability and potential for success in college to write a letter of recommendation on your behalf.

Recommendation letters should come from people who are familiar with your academic abilities, achievements, community involvement, and/or potential for college success. One recommendation should be from a teacher/professor, counselor/adviser, or principal. The other recommendation could be from an employer or community member.

Recommendations should not come from an immediate family member, classmate, peer, or friend. Please have the writer include the following information: academic capabilities, motivation, personal characteristics, experiences, and achievements.

Be sure that they include the following on all letters: student's name, own name and title, relationship to student.
