WHAT WILL IT TAKE FOR US TO BE SUCCESSFUL?

For the Public Administration Department at Portland State University to be successful in its student-centered program changes, it will require an innovative approach towards curriculum innovation, integration of cutting-edge technologies, and active engagement with both students and industry trends.

Success focuses on the department creating a learning environment that not only meets the current demands of the public sector but also anticipates future challenges, ensuring that graduates are well-prepared, adaptable, and capable of thriving in a rapidly changing world. This necessitates a collaborative approach, leveraging feedback from students, faculty, and industry stakeholders, to continuously refine and enhance the educational offerings.
