

CAMPUS REC

Personal Trainer

10-15 Hours/Week • $23.92/Hour

5-6 Positions Available – Start Date: late August 2026

We accept Federal Work Study Applicants, but not required.

Campus Rec provides an inclusive environment where recreation and wellness opportunities inspire, empower and educate people to be positive contributors to the global community. We strive to create a healthy, happy and engaged Portland State community.

Campus Rec Personal Training helps clients realize their unique health and wellbeing goals in a fun, safe environment by creating rapport, providing coaching support, and building client confidence. Personal Trainers are committed to helping the program fulfill its vision and mission to inspire the PSU community to pursue an enjoyable, actively balanced lifestyle.

For the first year in this position, new trainers are required to work at least 1 2 hour floor shift per term. Floor Staff job description here.

Supervisor: Jenna Siegel, Fitness Coordinator, jesiegel@pdx.edu

Duties and Responsibilities

- Coach, inspire and collaborate with clients to develop and implement individualized training programs that align with their personal fitness, health and wellbeing goals.
- Create programs through a lens of Campus Rec's mission, vision and values statements.
- Provide a detailed introduction to the weight room and cardio areas.
- Educate clients on the proper use of gym equipment through demonstration and instruction.
- Be capable of lifting and moving a minimum of 30lb.
- Be familiar and educated on all Campus Rec programs, promoting them to clients and members when appropriate.
- Coach proper form and safety of exercises/movements through demonstration, while using optimal training techniques.
- Educate clients on the policies and procedures of the Rec Center while upholding them during all sessions.
- Maintain a training availability of 15 hours per week, per term, in-person and virtual (by client request). Approximately managing 5-10 clients at once.

CAMPUS REC

- Independently manage your training schedule (session scheduling, direct communication with clients, Google Calendar accuracy, etc).
- Keep detailed and accurate records of client information and sessions.
- Maintain client confidentiality in alignment with FIRPA laws/regulations.
- Immediately report all injuries, vandalism and equipment needs/fixes to appropriate staff.
- Participate in trainer lead community events (tabling, pop-ups, Fitness-on-the-Go, etc).
- Contribute to the online presence of Campus Rec when asked (photoshoots, filming, media promotions, instructional workout videos, etc).
- Maintain regular communication with the Fitness Coordinator and/or Personal Training Student Coordinator.
- Handle duties assigned by the Fitness Coordinator and/or Personal Training Student Coordinator.
- Attend and actively participate in all mandatory staff trainings and/or meetings.

Expectations

- Maintain good academic standing: Minimum enrollment of 6 PSU credits for undergraduates, 5 PSU credits for graduates and minimum 2.0 grade point average undergrad and 3.0 graduate (student applicants only).
- Commitment to Campus Rec's mission, vision, values, and commitment to equity statements.
- Function and communicate effectively and respectfully within the context of varying beliefs, behaviors, orientations, identities, body sizes, abilities, and cultural backgrounds.
- Present self in an approachable, friendly manner with a willingness to help a diverse range of clients.
- Positive attitude and willingness to learn and grow as a trainer.
- Maintain current Personal Training certification including completing CECs/CEUs as required

Working Conditions

- Typical Working Hours: Hours vary and are set based on trainer availability with supervisor approval. Must provide a minimum of 15 hours per week of consistent availability each term.
- Location of Work: 1800 SW 6th Ave, Portland, OR. Work primarily indoors in weight and cardio areas; may be in the pool or outside depending on client needs. Virtual personal training (if offered) is performed remotely with clients via Zoom and requires space to facilitate and lead a virtual personal training session.
- Type of Work: Regular standing, walking, kneeling and crouching. Lifting weights and/or equipment in demonstration of usage to participants.
- Attire: Trainer shirt, nametag, closed toed shoes, and athletic bottoms.
